December 5–7, 2023 | Virtual

EXHIBITOR WORKSHOP SUBMISSION FORM

MRS is accepting submissions for Exhibitor Workshop Sessions during the 2023 MRS Fall Meeting & Exhibit. MRS offers exhibitors the opportunity to present workshops to a diverse, international industry-focused audience. Utilize this dedicated time to demonstrate your organization’s integral expertise to the materials research science industry. Investment $1,000 | 2 for $1,750

What’s Included

Workshops will be held on a stage in the MRS HUB area in Exhibit Hall D and will include a head table for two and podium, audience seating for 40, basic audio/visual (projector, screen, sound system, av tech), electrical and a material distribution table. Exhibitors are responsible for a laptop, if necessary, and any additional equipment or accessories.

Promotion

Workshops will be promoted on the MRS website and with on-site signage*. Exhibitors are also encouraged to promote the workshop through their own marketing channels.

Submissions

Topics can range across materials science and research. They should not be marketing or product pitches. Submissions are reviewed and all submitters will be notified once the final schedule has been confirmed. Submissions will not be reviewed or approved without all information below filled in. Submission does not guarantee a time slot.
